

Today I think about the multi-UAV coverage, especially the 2-drone situation, shown below. It is worth considering the distance, time, turns of the route, and the relationship between the number of drones and the area of the field.

I also learned a little about the Hamiltonian circuit in graph theory.

